Memoirs 1965

Dedication

Mr. Arthur Campbell, a sometimes overlooked member of the high school, is actually one of the basic reasons for the school's success and prosperity.

Although at times Mr. Campbell's job is passed off as a mere matter of fact, there is really no one more deserving of commendation than he.

As a small gesture of appreciation, the graduating class of 1965 unanimously dedicates Memoirs 1965 to Mr. Arthur Campbell.

Foreword

Rush to school! Run to class! Hurry to catch the bus! Through necessity, our education has been patterned to a tight time schedule. Our hurried moments through our high school career, although enjoyable, have lacked a basic essential —time. We have been deprived of adequate time to realize, to understand, and to absorb satisfactorily the full meaning of these significant years.

No one is to blame, for this hurried existence prevails throughout our entire lives. We can, however, attempt to remedy this lack of time by presenting a yearbook which serves as a diary of the more important events that have occurred during our high school years.

This yearbook, we hope, fulfills its obligation of reminding the owner of some of the best years of his life.

Baseball '64

The team of '64 was led to many victories by Coach Jim Sullivan and Co-captains Jim Goodwin and Bruce Cranshaw. Much to the dismay of the team and of the baseball fans, the team missed winning the Narry League Championship by the narrow margin of just one game, and the deciding game was the last of the season.

Fashions and Softball

Fashions and softball, two opposites, display clearly the fact of versatility that is not uncommon among Somerset High School's girls.

Unusual as it may seem, Somerset's girls' athletics are on the same competitive level as the boys' athletics. Although the girls did not win the championship this year (1964), they ranked third in the league.

Our Hearts Were Young and Gay

Under the excellent direction of Mr. Ward, the Dramatic Club of 1964 presented Cornelia Otis Skinner's well-liked comedy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." As usual the play was a happy success due to the excellent cooperation and talent displayed by the students involved.

Senior Banquet

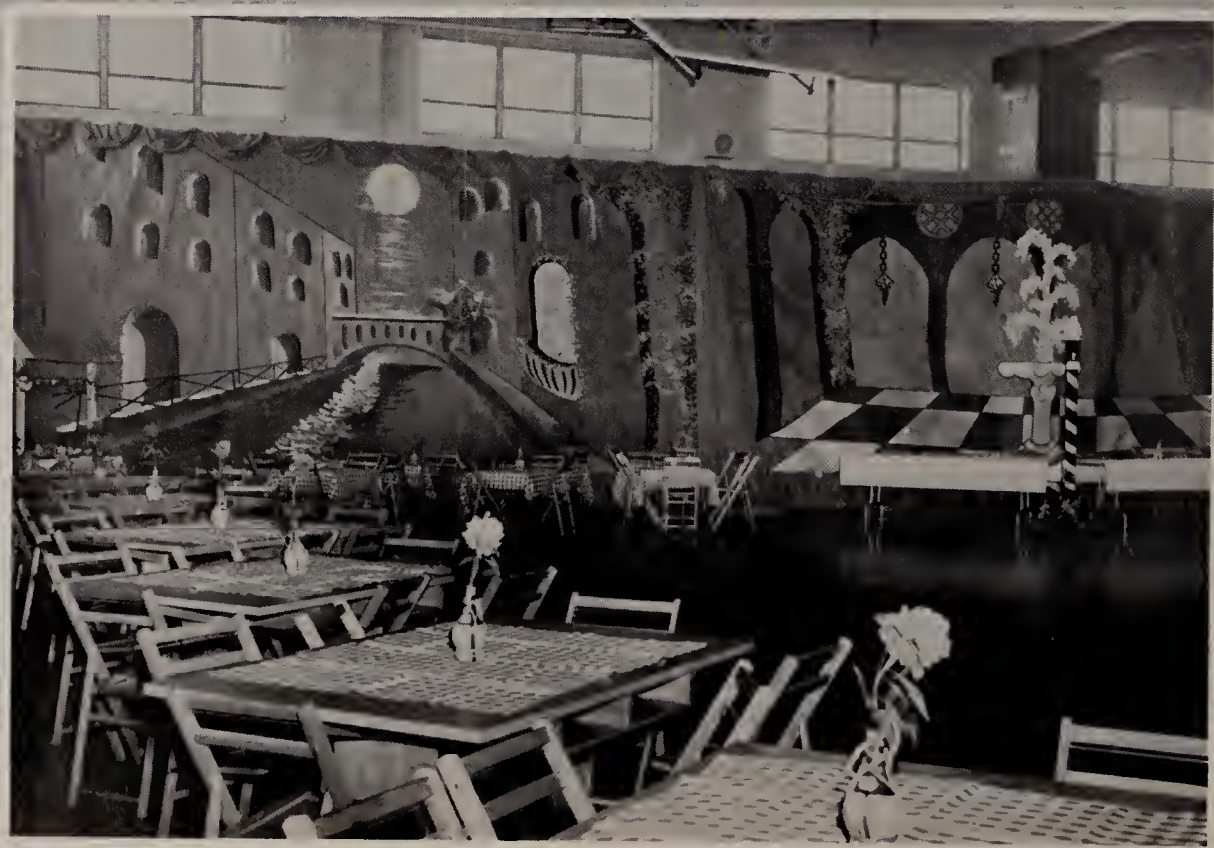
The annual Senior Banquet, held at White's last June, aside from being the last social event before the Junior-Senior Prom, also served as an opportunity to announce the dedication of Memoirs 1964 to Mr. Robert Simpson.

Pictured below, Mr. Simpson listens as Jane Thibault, Memoirs Editor 1964, delivers the dedication.



Venetian Vista

The 1964 Junior-Senior Prom was the most successful prom to date, both financially and socially. Over five hundred people were in attendance at this gala affair.

Unfortunately, we are unable to display the full splendor of the occasion as all of the candids taken before and during the actual celebration were accidentally destroyed in the processing laboratory.

Joe Silva, Graduation Marshal, chats with Seniors before the ceremony.

Graduation

It is almost impossible to express in words the mixed emotions of a graduating class. However, we hope that these pictures have captured some of the typical moods of a graduation night.

Football '65

The Somerset football team underwent a building season. The team, led by Tri-Captains Joe Silva, Lionel Rousseau, and Dave Smith, gained a lot of valuable experience despite a 3-6 record. The team displayed a great deal of desire and enthusiasm for sportsmanship. The school can be particularly proud of the team's upset victory against Bishop Feehan of Attleboro (Class B) and its 8-0 victory over Case High, Somerset's traditional Thanksgiving Day rival.

Class Will 1965

I, Sherry Cooper, leave Mr. Mahoney the conferences he never took for O.T.L.
I, Steve Campos, leave my position in the Honor Society to any junior who wants it? ?
We, Joanne Tavares, Claudette Levesque, Roberta Medeiros, and Carol Caouette leave Miss Mason with "Mition-mation, dition-dation, tition-tation".
I, Terry Gomes, leave my countless thanks to Mr. Alden for his perseverance and guidance.
We, Terry Freitas and Rosemary Barboza, leave scrap paper to any juniors who love to pass notes.
We, Bernie Gabriel, Elaine Fairclough, and Sandy Miguel, leave Miss Mason with fond memories of the "Three Stooges".
I, Diane Levesque, leave to the underclassmen the mad crush I once had on a certain World History teacher.
I, Bob Letendre, leave in a hurry on my Honda.
I, Jo-Anne Johnson, leave Mr. Leary, Mr. Alden, and Mr. Malloy to anyone who would like to have a good laugh.
I, Robert Danis, hereby leave my Adlers and a few Madras ties to Mr. MacDonald.
I, Dolores Fitzpatrick, leave the many laughs of teaching an eighth grade class to the future Leaders Club members.
To Vice Principal Morris, who hates to check the Senior Class parking lot, I, Chuck Gaboriau, leave a strip of rubber.
I, Roger Dufault, leave all my arguments and viewpoints with Mr. Barrar.
I, Daryll Dowty, leave to Mr. Donahue all my unfinished math, science reading, and history homework to give to my brother to complete.
I, Guy Averill, leave my brains to anyone who will have them.
I, Linc Marsh, leave in the greatest haste only to find no place to go!
I, Pamela Mayes, leave the statement, "Miss Maye, you didn't do your homework?" and all my excuses to anyone who didn't do it.
I, Wallace Jew, leave my "golden voice" to any person who may have Mr. Donahue for a teacher.
I, Peirre Hebert, leave my brother, Paul, all the books I never used.
I, Joe Dionne, leave my sun-glasses to next year's near-sighted senior.
I, JoAnne Correa, leave Mr. Zagorski my Tokyo Rose voice.
I, Kathy Bearden, leave my stubborn locker to some good strong junior.
I, Dan Leonard, leave my jokes and drawings to Mr. Veira.
I, Gail Dennis, do leave my record for school dismissals to anyone with enough nerve to follow my example.
I, Roger Bievenue, leave all the pieces of tape from my drawings in Mr. Haggerty's room under the desk in the last seat.
I, William DeCosta, leave the struggle of passing to someone else.
I, Dwight Harvey, leave Mr. Smietana's tests to the following year's class.
I, Carol Leonard, leave my sister Mary Louise, the last of the Leonards.
I, Elaine Soares, leave Miss Corcoran free of all bruises and trips to the hospital.
I, Diane Parent, leave Somerset High School to the poor freshmen who still have four more years in this heaven on earth they call S.H.S.
I, Bob Brough, leave that horrible phrase of Mr. Whites's, "I will not skylark" to the next poor player he catches sleeping during practice on Saturday mornings, and good old number "14".
I, Julie LaTour, leave my natural blond hair??
I, Charles Parsons, leave my height to Mr. Bernardo.
I, Peter Senuick, leave my "reconoitering" to the football team.
I, Fred Moniz, leave to any member of the band my uniform if it doesn't fall apart before then.
I, Paul Galvin, leave my good school attendance to Mrs. Winslow!
I, Francis De Moura, leave the radio in the A. V. room for some kind soul to fix.
I, Richard Casey, leave Mr. White my track shoes and Mr. Newton some figgies.
I, Michael J. Brillo, leave to any of my colleagues an empty smoking stall in front of Mr. Morris's office.
I, Art Botelho, leave my old broken down locker, No. 7, for some senior to make work.
I, Peter Berube, leave my blond hair to some bald girl.
I, Art Barboza, leave my patience to Somerset High Teachers.
I, Art Aldrich, leave my rather large guitar bill to anyone who will pay it.
We, Patricia Ann and Patricia Rose Souza, hope to leave the confusion between our names.
I, Peter Lennon, leave Mr. Smietana his old door knob and pencil sharpener.
We, Dorothy Bobola and Amy Davis, leave Mr. White and the art room in peace and in order!!!
I, Walt Moquin, leave Mike Godek's football helmet to any two people who can use it!!!
I, Margaret Lamond, gladly leave my locker No. 49 at the end of the alcove to any cold junior who doesn't mind hot radiators!

I, Peter Viveiros, leave my school the memory of a great and modest human being—me!

I, Madeline Trudeau, leave my place in Mixed Chorus to someone with a musical voice!!!

We, Gail, Jean, Joy, Marcia and Marie, wanted to leave something to Mr. Beals, but he left before us.

We, Doreen, Elaine, and Marilyn, leave our "crutch club" to future athletes, and to Mr. Kaylor we leave our used insurance forms.

I, Jack Driscoll, do leave all my used campaign posters to anyone who thinks he can have better luck than I did in the S.A.A. elections.

I, Jerry Joynt, leave chemistry and trigonometry gladly.

Being of sound body I leave my shotgun and shells and my privilege to ride on motorcycles.—Dean Mansfield

I, Curt Cabral, leave my gym classes, happy to be alive.

I, Charlie Ferland, leave Somerset forever.

I, Richard Dallaire, leave hoping that the locker room won't smell as bad next year.

I, Richard Waring, finally leave Mr. Alden!!!

I, William Bibeau, leave to Somerset High School teachers the tricks and schemes I have tried, so that those after me will be caught.

I, Bette—ann Trafka, sadly leave behind my majorette buddies and all the fun I enjoyed with them during football season.

I, Steven Torres, leave Mr. Leary, dieting; Mr. Pontes, preaching; Mr. Chauvette, crying; Mr. Burns, stunned; and Mr. Smietana, easily.

I, Jack Malloch, leave early.

I, Diane L. Seward, leave the fourth seat in the second row in room 107 to anyone who feels brave enough to take French every year in high school.

We, Pat and Gayle Logan, leave the Breeze to the next busy editors.

I, Ken Kiley, leave my track spikes to the slowest underclassman and my lunch to the most undernourished.

We, Valerie Hopkins and Cheryl Benoit, leave the senior high corridors to any future seniors who get to school early.

I, Nancy McGuire, leave the new seniors all the luck in the world on matching the class of 65's fun.

I, Robert Fish, leave the library of the high school band to anyone with the will power to take it.

I, Mike Dacey, leave a time bomb hidden in the school ready to go off some time next year.

I, David Motta, leave my poem "The American Symbol" to Mr. Donahue.

I, Earl Thornton, leave Mr. Joseph Zagorski a lot happier.

I, Robert Taylor, leave full control of the senior parking lot to Robert Huard, William Campos, and John Loiselle.

I, Nancy Finney, leave headaches and sleepless nights to next year's head majorette.

I, Alan Neville, leave all the "problems of democracy" to Mr. McManus with the hope that he can solve some of them.

I, David Smith, leave wonderful memories.

I, Betty Souza, open the doors of FTA to the waiting sophomores.

I, Anne Williams, leave behind my height for anyone who wants the nickname Shorty.

I, Jim Malone, have had excellent training mentally, morally, and physically at Somerset, but I still have to part.

I, Jim Charrette, leave locker #13 to any superstitious students of the future.

I, Wendy Scott, being true to my thrifty Scottish ancestry take everything with me.

I, Charlie Oliveira leave my cigarette butts neatly wrapped somewhere in the sanitary.

I, Ronnie Muller, leave my affection for Mr. Morris!!!

I, Gerald Martin, leave my messy locker to next year's seniors.

I, Tom Giacobbe, leave the name "Chevy's still Boss."

I, Rosemary Nashwick, leave with great happiness!

I, Michael Lima, leave school at last!

I, Louie Leroux, leave my brush to Mr. White, so that some of it may rub off on the juniors.

I, Pat Lancier, leave my locker near the radiator to anyone who wants to get burned.

I, Bill Hyde, leave my torn up "Barry" to anyone who desires it.

I, Nancy Duquette, leave my old English notes to Mr. Newton.

I, Tom Duclos, leave my will to Somerset High, that is, my will to forget.

I, Gert Bouffard, leave the books and teachers I had at Somerset High to my brother Sarge.

I, William Silvestre, just want to leave.

I, John Sebastiao, leave all of my lost pencils to anyone who can find them.

I, Mike Santerre, leave my hair for someone who needs it.

I, Lionel Rousseau, leave the whirlpool to anyone who might need it.

I, Bob O'Neil, leave Mr. Knecht and the A-V room in one piece.

I, Helena Rocha, leave to Mr. Donahue all my old gum wrappers.

I, Helena Rebello, leave Mr. Burns all my peculiar math notebooks and especially peace of mind.

I, Carol Noonan, leave all the fun and excitement of being head cheerleader to some lucky pep squadder.

I, Joi Mitchell, leave Mr. Chauvette one partly destroyed chemistry lab and a bottle of tranquilizers.

I, Sharyn Miller, sincerely leave the senior high lockers to anyone who can reach the top shelf.

I, Janet Thornton, regretfully leave my piano, bassoon, glokenspiel, bass drum, etc., to Mr. Gayzagian, Mrs. Pavao, or anyone else who loves music.

I, Susan Swidzinski, leave. Bye!

I, Bob St. Laurent, leave the percussion section to anybody who can stand it.

I, Pat Soroka, leave to any A-L-M French student the job of spoiling her hairdo with the headphones.

I, Melvin Russell, leave with a great deal of wandering.

I, Shirley Costa, leave my late slips to the tardy senior of the class of '66.

Basketball '65

Somerset High's basketball team had an 8-8 season despite the fact that it had only one returning starter from last year. The team, behind Captain Dave Sypko, surprised many Narry League teams this season. Many junior team members gained valuable experience which will be a great asset next year.

BRISTOL COUNTY CHAMPIONS

The Somerset High Raiderettes have captured many athletic trophies throughout previous years, but this is the first year that they have won the Bristol County Girls' Basketball Championship. This hard working team was under the leadership of Co-Captains Dolores Fitzpatrick and Dorene Menezes, along with the following seniors: Marilyn Curt, Pauline DeMello, Nancy Finney, Nancy McGuire, and Elaine Soares; all have had four years of experience on this team. Without the skillful coaching of Miss Frances Corcoran and the outstanding participation of the remaining varsity, we as a team feel we would have encountered greater difficulty in obtaining the Bristol County League Crown. Congratulations coach and girls!

Faculty — Varsity

Game

A much anticipated event by the students, the faculty, and the townspeople is the annual Faculty-Varsity game sponsored by the Somerset Teachers Association to raise scholarship funds. A record crowd of over 700 spectators enjoyed the spirited antics on the court. This year the students won by a score of 70-67. This was accomplished in the last few seconds of the exciting game. Congratulations to the varsity team and the faculty for a game well played!

Patron — Patroness

For the first time since the booster method of the Patron-Patroness campaign to help out the Yearbook treasury and the treasury of the senior class, two English divisions managed to have one hundred percent contributing toward the campaign. As a reward for their efforts and the efforts of the group in the picture below (which brought in the most money, $98.00), it was decided to let these groups take a fun picture of their division to put in the yearbook.

The class total for the campaign was $400.00! This is an all-time-high which surpassed last year's record of $336.00. This success is attributable to the efforts of the 66% of the 212 seniors who made the campaign the success that it was.
